

We love to share our beautiful grounds with photographers – professionals and amateurs alike! While there is no set fee for professional photographers, we ask that anyone who charges a fee for his or her services, to make a donation to Central Gardens per each event, or become a corporate member which allows seasonal access.

As a corporate member, you will receive our newsletters, and you will be recognized in each newsletter, on social media, and in our annual report. Being a member of Central Gardens supports our ability to maintain the grounds for all to enjoy with no admission fee. Click HERE for the membership form.
